Jeremiah Olusola

AFRO CARIBBEAN | DANCE OF THE GODS

This man is a super versatile performer trained in Graham, Release and Contact Improvisation, whilst ever cultivating his style exploring hip hop, commercial (you should see how he works a pair of heels) and Afro-Caribbean dance. He's worked with the likes of Boy Blue Entertainment, The Royal Opera House Opera De Lyon and is inspired by artists that encourage and nurture other artists citing his main influences right as, Kenrick Sandy, Akram Khan, Serge Aime Coulibaly, Parris Geobel and Alvin Ailey, and Reuben Feels.

Expect a most joyful dance class inspired by Nigeria's Eyo Festival, Afro Caribbean dance and Kumina, to cleanse away the old energy and usher in the new.
